

AGENDA

Assembly Committee on Health Informational Hearing

HOSPITAL SERVICES AND EMERGENCY CARE: AN EMERGING CRISIS

Friday, May 18, 2007

10:00 a.m.

Inglewood City Hall

1 W. Manchester Blvd., Community Room
Inglewood, California

I. Welcome and Opening Remarks

- Mayor Roosevelt F. Dorn, City of Inglewood
- Curren Price, Assemblymember, District 51
- Edward Vincent, Senator, District 25
- Mervyn M. Dymally, Chairman, Assembly Committee on Health

II. Hospitals Perspective

- C. Duane Dauner, President,
California Hospital Association
- Lee Weiss M.D., Director of Emergency Services,
Centinela Freeman Regional Medical Center, Centinela Campus

III. Los Angeles County Health System

- Robert G. Splawn, M.D., Senior Medical Director,
Los Angeles Department of Health Services

IV. University Perspective

- Susan Kelly, Ph.D., FAPS, President and CEO,
Charles R. Drew University of Medicine and Science

V. Advocate Perspective

- Lark Galloway-Gilliam, MPA, Executive Director,
Community Health Councils, Inc.
- Barbara Siegel, Managing Attorney of the Health Consumer Center,
Neighborhood Legal Services of Los Angeles County

VI. Emergency Medical Services Perspective

- Franklin D. Pratt, M.D., FACEP, Emergency Room Physician,
Torrance Memorial Medical Center,
Los Angeles County Emergency Medical Service Commission

VII. Labor Perspective

- Kathy Ledesma Ochoa, Director, Strategic Initiatives, SEIU Local 721
- Mila Flores, RN, California Nurses Association
- Barbara Lewis, Administrative Vice President and Director, Hospital Division,
SEIU United Healthcare Workers West

VIII. Public Comment

- Limited – based on time