

AGENDA

Informational Hearing

Supporting Public Health in California:

The Critical Role of the State and Local Departments in Disease Surveillance and Control

Tuesday, February 11, 2014

State Capitol, Room 4202

1:30 pm – 4:00 pm

I. Opening remarks and Introductions

- Chairman Richard Pan, M.D., MPH
 - The Importance of Public Health
- Committee Members

II. Overview Of Public Health in California

- Ron Chapman, M.D., State Health Officer and Director, Department of Public Health (DPH)
 - Overview of DPH's Major Programs
- Shawn Martin, Managing Principal Analyst, Legislative Analyst's Office
 - Fiscal Overview
- Karen Smith, M.D., MPH, Napa County Public Health Officer
 - Resources at the Local Level

III. Disease Surveillance and Control – Strategies for Preventing and Controlling Disease

- Gil Chavez, M.D., MPH, Deputy Director, DPH Center for Infectious Disease
 - Overview of Communicable Disease from the State Perspective.
- S. Todd Stolp, M.D., MPH, Health Officer, Tuolumne County Public Health Department
 - Local Health Officers In Communicable Disease Surveillance and Control
- Barbara Cole, R.N., PHN, MSN, Branch Chief, Riverside County Department of Public Health
 - Local Public Health Disease Outbreaks

IV. Emerging Issues & Initiatives in Public Health

- Claudia Jonah, M.D., Public Health Officer, Kern County
 - Valley Fever
- Wm. Jahmal Miller, MHA, Deputy Director, DPH Office of Health Equity

V. Moving Forward

- Tony Iton, M.D., J.D., MPH, Senior VP, Healthy Communities, California Endowment
 - Vision for California's Public Health Systems moving forward

VI. Public Comment